

Rules that make everyone feel comfortable.

Have a good time here, but be careful to respect other people's boundaries! Ask if the other person wants to talk or interact with you.

Only yes means yes.

Together be aware.

Everyone should feel accepted and comfortable regardless of gender, sexuality, skin color, religion or ethnicity. We do not tolerate any form of discrimination, anti-Semitism or racism. Hate symbols are not welcome. We do not tolerate disrespectful and abusive behavior such as unwanted hitting on, comments or harassment.

You have the right to feel safe and respected. If you feel harassed or uncomfortable, contact us with "IS LUISA HERE?". If you see that another person needs help: ask the person or let us know - we take all reports seriously.

Be good to each other.
